

Leaving a Gift to Phyllis Tuckwell in your Will

...because every day is precious

Leaving a Gift in your Will would help us to provide vital care in years to come.

Making a Will, and keeping it up-to-date, is one of the most important things we can do, yet 60% of UK adults don't have a Will*, and many of them will die without ever having written one.

Ensuring that, should the worst happen, your wishes will be known and your money and possessions will go to those you have chosen, is important for both financial and sentimental reasons.

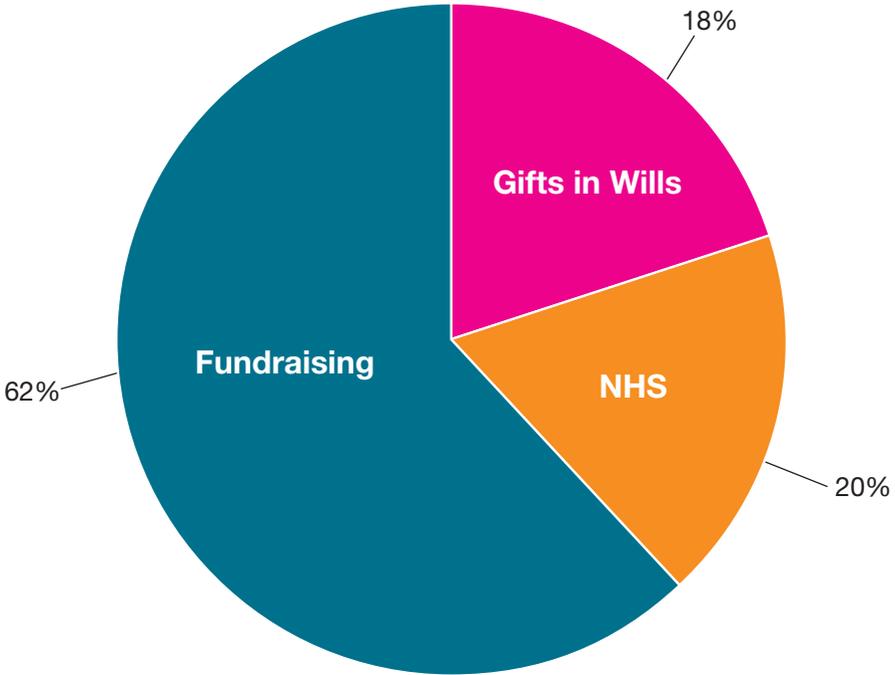

Many people who write a Will decide to leave a gift to a charity of their choice.

These are called Gifts in Wills, and can help charities greatly. Leaving a Gift in your Will can also benefit those who inherit the rest of your estate, as it can lower the inheritance tax rate which your estate will be taxed at.

*Over half (60%) of UK adults don't have a Will, according to research from Unbiased.co.uk. Oct 2017.

We rely heavily on the money we receive through Gifts in Wills, which currently funds the care of 1 in 5 of our patients. That's 400 patients a year. Gifts in Wills allow us to plan ahead, developing our facilities and offering new services, knowing that we will have the funds to pay for them.

If you are able to leave a Gift in your Will to Phyllis Tuckwell, no matter what the amount, it will help to provide a reliable source of income in the future, enabling us to continue providing our care for generations to come.

If you are considering leaving a Gift in your Will to Phyllis Tuckwell we would love to hear from you, or to find out more, call our Legacy Officer on 01252 729446 or email hannah.robins@pth.org.uk.

A Gift in your Will can bring compassionate care and support into the lives of those who need it most.
