Quality Care in Your Home making a difference every day

7.45pm
Sunday 7th December 2025

Order of Service

Thank you for joining us for our annual Light up a Life service. We would like to welcome everyone watching from home.

Whether you are a regular supporter or new to the Phyllis Tuckwell family, we welcome you all warmly to this event and hope that you will find comfort and enjoyment in this evening. This traditional gathering gives us all a chance to reflect and remember those who are no longer with us, but are never forgotten.

We are thrilled to be inside the Cathedral for our 2025 service. Wherever we are, our message remains the same, in the same way as the location of our Hospice has temporarily moved, we are still providing the same quality care at our temporary In-Patient Unit and continue to support people in their own homes and at the Beacon Centre. We are looking forward to moving back into the newly built Hospice in 2026.

To see the names of those who have been remembered, please turn to the Book of Remembrance that follows this Order of Service. Following the service, the names of those who have been remembered in our Book of Remembrance will be projected here on the outside of Guildford Cathedral, the names will be displayed until 10pm tonight.

With our best wishes for a peaceful and happy festive season, and with grateful thanks for your support.

Sarah Church
Chief Executive

Our service will be led by our Phyllis Tuckwell Chaplains,
Rev Dr Jill Thornton and Rev Gerard Mee

Welcome by Sarah Church, Phyllis Tuckwell Chief Executive,
and Reverend Canon Rachel Young

Carol: Once in Royal David's City

Solo sung by Ruby Skilbeck

Solo

Once in Royal David's city stood a lowly cattle shed, where a mother laid her Baby
in a manger for His bed:
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little Child.

He came down to earth from heaven,
who is God and Lord of all,
and His shelter was a stable,
and His cradle was a stall;
with the poor, and meek, and lowly,
lived on earth our Saviour holy.

And our eyes at last shall see Him,
through His own redeeming love;
for that Child so dear and gentle is our Lord in heav'n above, and He leads His children on to the place where He is gone.

Not in that poor lowly stable,
with the oxen standing by,
we shall see Him; but in heaven,
set at God's right hand on high;
where like stars His children crowned all in white shall wait around.

Introduction

Carol: O Come all ye Faithful

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant!
O come ye, O come ye, to Bethlehem
Come and behold Him
Born the King of angels

*O come, let us adore Him
O come, let us adore Him
O come, let us adore Him
Christ the Lord!*

God of God, Light of Light
Lo, He abhors not the Virgin's womb
Very God
Begotten, not created

*O come, let us adore Him
O come, let us adore Him
O come, let us adore Him
Christ the Lord!*

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God
All glory in the highest

*O come, let us adore Him
O come, let us adore Him
O come, let us adore Him
Christ the Lord!*

See how the shepherds, summoned to his cradle leaving their flocks, draw nigh to gaze;
we too will thither bend our joyful footsteps

*O come, let us adore Him
O come, let us adore Him
O come, let us adore Him
Christ the Lord!*

The Gift by Clare Pollard,
read by Mayor of Guildford,
Councillor Howard Smith

Carol: We Three Kings
Solo sung by Ruby Skilbeck

Solo

We three kings of Orient are;
Bearing gifts we traverse afar,
Field and fountain, moor and mountain,
Following yonder star.

*O star of wonder, star of light,
Star with royal beauty bright,
Westward leading, still proceeding,
Guide us to thy perfect light.*

Solo

Born a King on Bethlehem's plain
Gold I bring to crown Him again,
King forever, ceasing never,
Over us all to reign.

*O star of wonder, star of light,
Star with royal beauty bright,
Westward leading, still proceeding,
Guide us to thy perfect light.*

Solo

Frankincense to offer have I;
Incense owns a Deity nigh;
Prayer and praising, voices raising,
Worshipping God on high.

*O star of wonder, star of light,
Star with royal beauty bright,
Westward leading, still proceeding,
Guide us to thy perfect light.*

Solo

Myrrh is mine, its bitter perfume
Breathes a life of gathering gloom;
Sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying,
Sealed in the stone cold tomb.

*O star of wonder, star of light,
Star with royal beauty bright,
Westward leading, still proceeding,
Guide us to thy perfect light.*

Solo

Glorious now behold Him arise;
King and God and sacrifice;
Alleluia, Alleluia,
Sounds through the earth and skies.

*O star of wonder, star of light,
Star with royal beauty bright,
Westward leading, still proceeding,
Guide us to thy perfect light.*

Reflection

Carol: O Holy Night

Sung by the Shuffletunes Choir

Lighting of the candles

Carol: Hark! The Herald Angels Sing

Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King:
peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!"
Joyful, all ye nations rise,
join the triumph of the skies;
with th'angelic host proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem!"

*Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King!"*

Christ, by highest heaven adored,
Christ, the everlasting Lord,
late in time behold Him come,
offspring of the Virgin's womb:
veiled in flesh the Godhead see;
hail th'incarnate Deity,
pleased with us in flesh to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.

*Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King!"*

Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Son of Righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings,
risen with healing in His wings.
Mild He lays His glory by,
born that we no more may die,
born to raise us from the earth,
born to give us second birth.

*Hark! The herald angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King!"*

Blessing

You are very welcome to stay and watch the projection of dedications, which will run until 10pm

Useful information

Seasons Café will be open specially this evening for you to purchase hot or cold drinks, warm sausage rolls and cakes until 9.30pm. Toilets are available in the Seasons Café building.

Inside Seasons Café, please also visit our beautiful Christmas Wreaths stall, all kindly handmade by Phyllis Tuckwell volunteers. 100% money raised from the wreaths will come to Phyllis Tuckwell.

The names of those being remembered will be projected onto the front of Guildford Cathedral on a loop until 10pm. Please do watch both sides as different names appear either side of the Christmas Tree. The projection is only visible in person, but for those watching the live stream all names being remembered will be shown on screen at the end of the service.

We appreciate your patience in entering and exiting the car park this evening. It is likely to be busy and it may take some time for you to set off on your journey home.

The service is being live streamed and recorded this evening. To re-watch or to share it with someone unable to attend, then please visit www.pth.org.uk/lual2025 where they will soon be able to view the recording.

We are very grateful to the companies and groups listed below for donating their goods, time, skills or services free of charge to support Light up a Life this year:

- Guildford Cathedral.
- Councillor Howard Smith, Mayor of Guildford.
- Ruby Skilbeck (soloist).
- Farnham Brass Band.
- Shuffletunes Choir.
- Waitrose & Partners for providing the mince pies.
- Right at Home Guildford and Farnham.

Thank you to all our volunteers and staff for supporting Light up a Life, and very special thanks to you and your family for joining us this evening.

A message from our event sponsors

"Right at Home, homecare providers in Guildford, Farnham and surrounding areas are delighted to sponsor Light up a Life 2025. We are proud to partner with Phyllis Tuckwell and hope this event provides the opportunity for many to come together and remember their loved ones at this special time of year. Thank you to all those who have supported Light up a Life so that Phyllis Tuckwell can continue to provide their specialist care."

If the name of your loved one is not listed here or included in the dedications projected onto the Cathedral, we apologise. Please be aware, in order to meet deadlines, we had to keep to the deadline specified in all our correspondence.

However, we will be happy to dedicate a star in memory of your loved one on our Light up a Life website at www.pth.org.uk/lual. If you wish to do this, please just let us know by getting in touch using the contact details found on the back page of this booklet.

Christmas is a special time of year and one that many look forward to, but for those of us whose loved one is no longer with us, it can be a difficult time. The sense of loss which we feel all year round can seem even more present during this festive season.

For some, this Christmas will be the first without their loved one; for others their time apart will have been longer. As we gather together this evening, know that you are not alone, and that the memory of your loved one will live on in your heart and in the hearts of those who loved them. Through you joining us tonight and the dedications you have made, we are keeping their memory alive.

Thank you for joining us this evening to remember all those who are no longer with us but who will remain in our hearts forever.

A copy of this Order of Service will be available to view at www.pth.org.uk/lual2025 for anyone who was unable to attend this evening, or for those watching the live stream.
