

Euro 2024 Sweepstake

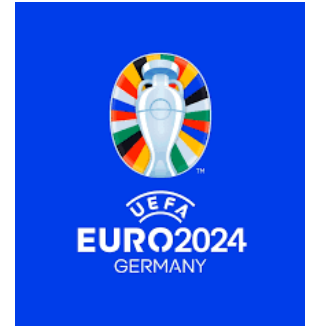

Phyllis[®]
Tuckwell
Hospice Care
...because every day is precious

Euro 2024 is coming up, and what better way to connect with your colleagues than a friendly office sweepstake! Have some fun, follow the tournament and support local Hospice Care. Phyllis Tuckwell can provide everything you need to hold your own sweepstake, including a wall chart, team sheet and instructions on how to take part.

We help people through their illnesses, and then support them in having the most peaceful, pain-free and dignified deaths possible. We also help local families, young children and carers through their grief and bereavement.

In future, as many as 1 in 3 local people in our area of Surrey and Hampshire will need support from Phyllis Tuckwell at the end of their lives. We are therefore building a new, larger Hospice from which we will be able to support thousands more local people, just like you.

The Warm Up

Firstly you'll need to play with colleagues who work at the same premises as you. By playing only within these arrangements (and not advertising to the general public) you'll avoid the need to register for a Gambling Licence (for more information on running a sweepstake or raffle legally visit the Gambling Commission website).

Arranging the prize! You could offer the winner of the sweepstake a percentage of the money raised from the game, with the rest being donated to Phyllis Tuckwell, or give them a non-monetary prize of your choice, such as a bottle of wine or box of chocolates, and donate the entire proceeds of the game to Phyllis Tuckwell (you can deduct reasonable expenses for prizes).

Get people involved! Spread the word about your fundraising football sweepstake via newsletters or over video call at a meeting. Try to aim for 24 sweepstake players, one for each Euro football team; if you have less than 24 players you can opt to give people more than one team, but these should be split equally and could result in some teams not being assigned.

Time for Kick Off

Choose who will get each football team by pulling names out of a hat using our handy cut-out team sheet, or if you're doing it virtually you can create a live draw online via www.sweepstakegenerator.com/generator/euro-2024/

Sit back, follow and enjoy the games together, writing in the winners of each match on the wall chart provided.

When the tournament is over and the winner of the Euro finals takes the cup, you can give your winning sweepstake player their prize! If you haven't already, you can then also make your donation to Phyllis Tuckwell from the proceeds of your sweepstake.

Extra Time?

If you want to really engage your staff and help them connect with colleagues they haven't seen in over a year, why not have some extra fun by having a football themed dress down day at work, a Euros inspired bake-off or even your own football tournament.

If you need any support to run your sweepstake or would like to chat about any other fundraising ideas, please contact Sarah or Tom from our Corporate Fundraising team, on 01252 729400 or corporate@pth.org.uk
